Networked Insurance Agents Adds High Value Home, Specialty PL Markets

May 17, 2016 <Grass Valley, CA> - Networked Insurance Agents continues to expand its personal lines market access. In the first quarter of 2016, Networked was appointed by NatGen Premier, a leading high value home market for California. Networked is one of only a select few agencies statewide to secure a direct appointment with this company. Plus, Networked broadened its appointment with USLI to offer key specialty personal lines products.

"Networked is excited to launch these partnerships and honored to be working with these coveted carriers. NatGen Premier is an excellent example of our strategy to provide our members with the most relevant markets and at the time when they may be searching for alternatives for insuring high-value property," said Scott Smith, Vice President at Networked. "We look forward to helping our members grow with both companies."

Networked's 1,200+ independent agent members may now access personal lines products directly from USLI underwriters via their customized online rating tool or receive phone quotes in less than four minutes. USLI entertains a broad range of personal lines risks for: personal liability, special events, personal umbrella, home-based business, and vacant buildings.
