

Networked Insurance Agents Builds Out New Office in Grass Valley

February 24, 2014, (GRASS VALLEY, CA) - Networked Insurance Agents, a leading insurance aggregator connecting independent agencies to top P/C carriers, announces their plan to relocate its headquarters within Grass Valley. Beginning April 21, Networked will occupy a completely renovated office space at 443 Crown Point Circle in the Whispering Pines Business Park. "We are thrilled to accommodate Networked Insurance Agents' office needs in Whispering Pines," said Jeff Johnson, President of Pacific Land Enterprises.

The company's move is in line with their goals for future growth and delivery of industry-leading service to its agency membership across the western US. "At Networked, we are continually working to improve our service level for our growing affiliate base. The change in venue to a new building designed for our exact needs will create a positive environment of comradery and support collaboration across the organization," said George Biancardi, Owner & Principal.

Networked was purchased last year by a small group of individual investors, including principals: Biancardi, Kelly McRae and Larry Oslie. Locally, Networked employs 75 insurance service professionals who handle the new account placement and back office agency support needs for their affiliates to reach their full potential.

Scott Smith, Vice President and Office Manager in Grass Valley, added: "Bringing our staff into a freshly-appointed, professional setting, puts the entire team in the mindset to serve our members better than ever. It also shows our new ownership's commitment to supporting the employees in Grass Valley." Managing this building, plus others in Whispering Pines, Johnson also said that Networked will be one of the business park's largest employers and its presence will help invigorate the park.
